Joint Paralegal Affiliate Application

National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. (NFPA)

CAP is affiliated with the National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. The NFPA is composed of autonomous state and local paralegal associations located throughout the United States and Canada. Through efforts at the national, regional, and statewide levels, CAP joins with other paralegal associations to advance the professional standing of paralegals employed in both traditional and non-traditional roles. Through its involvement with other associations, CAP participates in the formation of policy on issues affecting the profession as a whole, and gains perspective from other associations nationwide. Each member of CAP is automatically a member of NFPA and is entitled to its benefits on membership including a subscription to NFPA's quarterly magazine, The National Paralegal Reporter.
